

The Rutgers Club Special Events – Fall 2009

Friday, September 25: “Uncle Floyd” Vivino Live and in Person

Uncle Floyd set a Guinness World Record by playing (and singing) some 700 songs in a 24-hour period in front of a live audience! His program for us will be somewhat shorter, but it promises to be a blend of comedy and music – remember “The Uncle Floyd Show” that ran for 4,000 episodes on television in this area? Wonderful, wild and wacky! Buffet served from 5:30 p.m. Program begins at 6:30 p.m. Cost: $25.00 per person.

Friday, October 23: Bucky Pizzarelli & His NY Swing Trio

His latest CD album -- “So Hard to Forget” – features a violin section. No violins at the Club this night, but we can guarantee that his performance will be hard to forget. Cost: $40 per person. Buffet begins at 5:30; musical performance starts at 7 p.m.

Friday, November 20: Festive Dinner and Wine Tasting

Nothing enhances a meal more than selecting the ideal wine pairing for each course. The Club’s chefs will prepare a multi-course served meal. Our guide to the many wines offered will be Peter Morales of 57 Main Street Imports. He’ll help us sharpen our understanding of which wines go best with which foods. It all begins at 6:30 p.m. Cost: $25 per person

Friday, December 4: Holiday Party and Sing-Along

No humbug allowed: We get the season off to a wonderful start with a bounteous buffet. Then “Dee” at the piano has us singing everything from “Jingle Bells” to the jolliest version of “Twelve Days of Christmas” you’ll ever stand up and dance around for. Cost: $14.95 per person. Buffet begins at 5:30 p.m.; music starts at 6 p.m.
